Activities of PGA

5157. SHRI NARENDRA MOHAN: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that People's Guerrilla Army (PGA) has virtually replaced the forest officers and the police administration in Jharkhand-Chhattisgarh border and that PWG has launched special drive to recruit boys and girls of PGA in Bihar, Jharkhand, Andhra

Pradesh, Orissa and Madhya Pradesh etc.; and

(b) if so, what steps have been taken to combat this grim situation by the State Governments and whether in view of this growing menace, Central Government has issued any special directions in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CHENNAMANENI VIDYA SAGAR RAO): (a) There are no reports to indicate that the People's Guerilla Army (PGA) has replaced the forest officers and police administration in the areas on Jharkhand-Chhattisgarh border. However, attempts are on by the People's ar Group (PWG) to induce the tribal youth to join PGA in areas under its influence.

(b) The concerned State Governments have to devise various measure and take concrete steps to crub left wing extremist activities in the States. However, keeping in view the overall dimension which left wing extremism has assumed in some States, it has become a matter of concern for the Central Government as well. It has, therefore, set up a high level Coordination Centre, headed by the Union Home Secretary with Chief Secretaries and Directors General of Police of the seriously affected States, as its members, to review and coordinate steps taken by these States to check the left wing extremist activities, monitor the plan of action in respect of each State and make recommendation both on development and security aspects of the problem.
